ARE YOU WILLING?

by John Price

Answer this question for yourself: "Am I willing to have abundance manifest in my life?" We're talking about abundant money supply, abundant success, abundant loving relationships, abundant health and well-being. As the Wisdom Teachings tells us, "The will must be activated to receive the fruits of the harvest."

Will means purpose, determination. Do you have purposeful determination to have completeness in life? In The Angels Within Us I wrote: "We all talk about free will and God's will without realizing that they are one and the same. Our free will is our free use of God's will, which is concentrated in our divine consciousness. This means that our intuitive guidance, our true aspirations, and our loving intentions all represent the will of our Master Self, and to accept anything less than the highest and greatest in life is to deny that will." (See Chapter Twelve, The Angel of Spiritual Strength and Will.)

Now let's look at Lesson 17 in The Jesus Code and the spiritual treatment on the Power of Will:

It is my will that every obstacle to a whole and complete life be removed.

If there is a false belief in scarcity, I decree that it be dissolved now.

If there is a lie made manifest as a physical malady, let Truth replace it now.

If an error pattern exists from judging others and is outpicturing as strained relationships, I demand that it be eliminated now.

If wrong thinking has resulted in failure, it is my will that all such thoughts be corrected now.

I am ready and willing to live a rich, whole, loving, and successful life, which is my divine birthright.

God's will is mine!

You may also want to read "Employing the Energy of Will and Purpose" on pages 56-57 in Empowerment.

The next step after you're willing is to be ready--to move into a state of readiness. To be ready means to be prepared, and how do you prepare? Through a deep feeling in the heart of the Presence of God--Christ in you, your kingdom, power and glory. This is vitally important because (1) your Divine Consciousness is the answer to everything on earth, and (2) the heart is the ME of the demonstration, the creative power of the feminine-feeling nature, what the psychologists call the subconscious mind. Once you feel the Presence of God in your heart center, and let it maintain its home there, there is nothing you cannot do, be or have in the external world.

Let your Holy Self give you the gift of Itself right now. Your Holiness is standing at the inner door, knocking, waiting to enter your heart, the manifestation chamber. Go within. Open the door by pulling it toward you...feel the rush of the dynamic energy fill your heart. Christ in you, in your heart. Love, power, wisdom, creative intelligence...pure light pressing, pressing, pressing. Feel the throb, the pulsation, the fullness of the Presence. When you feel Divine Mind in your heart, you have the fulfillment of every human need, the answer to every problem, the supply to meet every demand. Oneness with God in the heart is the transforming power to make all things new.

Think on these thoughts:

There is no such thing as an unanswered problem. The answer is always within, and through my oneness with God the answer becomes known.

I have given the responsibility for living my life to the Presence within. Now the Truth makes me free. The Truth I AM is my abundance, my health, my creative success, my loving relationships.

Nothing is more important than my relationship with God--not my problems, not my troubles, not my worries. I stop this day giving power to non-power and begin to live as the magnificent Self I AM.

You have opened to inner door and have received the Presence. Now there is an outer door--the door to the external world--that must be opened to release the splendor. You don't pull it toward you, you push it open, but before you do, FEEL the Presence of God-Mind in your heart with its Master vibration. Do this now. Once you have the feeling, push the outer door open with your imaging faculty and feel the mighty wind of creative energy, the great thrust outward of the cosmic flow. Feel it going before you to meet every need and fulfill the desires of your heart.

This is when you can truly say...IT IS DONE! It all goes back to being willing and ready.

SPIRIT

by Joe Alfieri

O energy of life
boundless, yet secure
you bring to me unbridled love vibrant, soft and pure

your goodness is a constant flow your light a steady beam which keeps me on the path of truth and makes my life supreme you fill my heart with peace and joy

my every dream comes true
when I accept my oneness
as a living part of you.

IDENTITY

by Ellen O'Joy Chambers

Upon investigating my feelings, beliefs and what I relate to, I found that I identified with "stuff" that didn't serve my highest good. For instance, in the past I would buy a lot of articles about "how to lose weight" because I identified myself with how I looked. Well that seemed like a pretty normal thing to do until I started studying spiritual articles. Then I began to realize even when I looked at someone and thought to myself, they are too heavy, too thin, too short, too tall, etc., I was the one in identity crisis.

Our true Identity is Spirit...nothing more and nothing less. As we begin to drop all identity with the outer world of appearances and focus on the inner world of Spirit we shift our perception. The only reason we think we must look so good on the outside is because we think we are not good enough on the inside. A beautiful phrase in The Course In Miracles is: I am not a body, I am free, for I am as God created me. God created in His likeness and image, which is Spirit, unseen, invisible, absolute, complete Unconditional Love. This is our Truth, and this is our true Identity.

How are you identifying with who you are? We often get so caught up in the world of effects and think that is where the fixing needs to be done that we don't even realize this is what we identify ourselves with instead of our Truth--and no amount of fixing will make it well or beautiful, bigger or smaller or whatever the case may be. It is an inside job. It must begin with Cause where Spirit is first.

When I first became an ordained minister I made sure I signed my name with the Reverend first and introduced myself as "Reverend" as though it meant something. Guess what? It didn't change who I was. That is not a possibility. However, I was identifying with the title instead of my Truth and here I am a minister. I am so grateful today to say I am not any title whether it be manager, reverend, mother, sister or whatever. I am Spirit; I am Free, for I am as God created me. This is true Peace, Joy and Happiness. This is our true identity.

So many times in the past I would argue and argue because I thought it was so important to be right. Here again is another mistaken identity. The ol' need to be right! These identities all stem from f-e-a-r, also known as false evidence appearing real. If we go within to Spirit, which is Love and identify with this and nothing else, the fear will disappear. It is so simple, but somehow we forget which direction to take. It seems easier to stay in the world of effects, which is illusion stemming from our false identities, rather than turning to Spirit because we don't stop and look at what we are identifying with. We were taught at a very young age to stop, look and listen when crossing the street. Well let's start that practice again by stopping, looking and listening to the Inner Voice, the Comforter of our Soul, for guidance and direction.

Take time to be quiet and mindful of Who you are and release to the Holy Spirit all identities from the past that no longer serve your highest good. Allow Spirit's Light to shine away the fear, for truly it was never real in the first place. We are the only ones who make it real through our own fearful thoughts. We must forgive ourselves on a daily basis for forgetting our Truth until we remember. Practice does make perfect because God is there wherever you are as Spirit, your true Holy Divine Self.

A recent experience I had was with my son's family that came from another country. My daughter-in-law died from injuries in an automobile accident 2 1/2 months ago. This left my son with a baby and a 13 year old stepson. His mother-in-law came over from the old country speaking no English and decided to stay for three months with my son. He took her in out of respect and she took charge of the baby. Her way of taking care of the baby didn't happen to be "my way" and I immediately felt my "Grandmother horns" erupt out the top of my head! I immediately picked the baby up to take charge and "fix" what needed to be "fixed." I pranced around like the little mother hen I can be and realized how silly I (the one who's supposed to identify only with Spirit) was being. So I sat down and had a talk with myself and got me straightened out. I did go to the Holy Spirit and handed it all over and released it and forgave myself and felt my oneness with the other Grandmother and brought her into the light. Having my way and any fear ceased to be. I was once again in True Identity.

However, the other Grandma decided she was taking the older boy home to the old country and started on a campaign that was tearing the family apart. Well, don't you just know my "Mother hen's horns" erupted this time? Now she was messing with my six foot 43-year-old baby. Whew, what testing we can go through when we are on our spiritual journey. It took a little more time to sit once again with myself because that old ego, that part that edges God out, rattled like crazy in my head saying I had to do something. Well I did. I brought that little lady into the Light and into my Soul and saw her as myself and then placed any guilt, anger, resentment and fear on the Alter of Truth, turned it all over to Spirit, and gave thanks for the good coming from this experience. I am Spirit; I am free, for I am as God created me. If this is true of me, it is true of all. We are ONE.

My son is home with his two sons and they are doing well. The mother left with my blessings and love. I do know all is well and I have come to realize I do not know what is best for anyone other than my love. Love is the sweetest Truth in our Identity.

I forgive myself many times, and that is the word I chose for this year. Without doing forgiveness homework the door can't be fully open to love. Unforgiveness casts a dark shadow wherever it lurks, and if it is lurking around we are identifying with guilt from the past.

I see your Truth, your Light, and your Love as the reflection of Spirit.

Humanity is never so beautiful as when praying for forgiveness, or else forgiving another.--Jean Paul Richter

Precious Maggi, April 28, 1994--January 12, 2007

Our beloved Angel Paws, dear friend and companion is now with Casey, running in the celestial meadows on the other side. Oh how we miss her.

Jan has felt her in bed, John has visited her twice beyond the veil in dreams, and had a "voice transmission" while he was wide awake. She's truly enjoying Life.

Through her many incarnations, she's been with us for more than thirty years. We'll let you know what happens next.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED FOR THE MIRACLE EXPERIENCE INTENSIVE?

The flyer was in the February Report, and this is going to be a most unusual Gathering in that it will be more mystical than most of the others. We feel that the emphasis should be on the esoteric, the secretive and the otherworldly to reach the fullness of the Miracle Experience.

Dates: May 31-June 3, 2007, Tapatio Springs Resort, Boerne, Texas.

Let us hear from you soon.

SHARINGS

"Jan, I'm always delighted to receive the Quartus Report. It is such a source of inspiration. I love what you said in that last Report from your book about joy being the purpose of life. Walk in sunshine!"

C.--Arizona

"Thanks so much for the wonderful, fabulous World Healing Day Celebration and Quartus Birthday party! It was all done so beautifully for us all to enjoy. Thanks to Lynn for the amazing work on all the photo albums. It was really fun to look through them. Thanks for all the photos on the walls of the original World Healing Day. Thanks to Jan Mahannah for her beautiful singing, dancing and toning. Thanks to Laura for coordinating everything so well, as always. And thanks to John and Jan for keeping our focus on Peace and Prosperity, reminding us of what's really important. And thanks to all for the wonderful Celebration Ball! It was so much fun getting all dressed up and dancing with all my Quartus family."

"I had a wonderful time in December and could have stayed a few more days. I can't remember when I had a better time. So much love. My heart was overflowing with love, joy and peace. The dance was such fun and I enjoyed getting to sing, too. Meeting old and new friends was so much fun. I love you guys dearly and you will always have a very special place in my heart."

P.--e-mail

"Your article on the Ninth Paradigm was beautiful and enlightening! And my inner mind suggested it was time to reread The Superbeings."

J.--Connecticut

"I would like to say the Peace and Plenty Quartus Gathering in December was TRUE JOY! What a delight to be in the presence of John and Jan at the 20th anniversary of the World Healing Meditation. There are no words to describe the deepest sense of Peace felt as the prayer was read. Love was the intense feeling throughout the room with the deepest reverence for all beings around the earth. In the days, months and years to come we shall see how the Unity of this Prayer has gone to work like interlinking powers of energy surging where hate once lingered in the atmosphere, and there shall be no identity or trace left and only the power of love embraced and felt by all. We are all ONE and what we believe affects everyone, everywhere in the here and now."

E.--California

"The Quartus Gathering and Celebration was absolutely wonderful! We had a great time with everyone. The music, the food, the dancing, and all of us beautiful people bringing in the New Year. It was a wonderful way to release the old and bring in the new. Thank you for all you are and do."

S.--Texas

"I want to tell you how very much I enjoyed Report No. 12, 2006. It is so full of good thoughts! I have underlined and highlighted much of the piece titled 'The Certainty of Consciousness'. So striking are the words, 'Moment by moment, hour by hour, our consciousness radiates the tone and pitch of our mind-heart set'. And... 'commitment to the Presence within'. What a concept! I could go on, but must tell you that everyday, actually several times daily, I read J. Sig Paulson's words from The Activity of God. Thanks again for blessing my life."
