ALL SUFFICIENCY

By John Price

It is the Will of God for you to have an All-Sufficiency of All Good at all times. To understand this more fully, let's first agree that the personal consciousness is also divine. You may not have considered this before, but I ask you to do so now. What we think of as the "lower nature" is but an illusion superimposed so to speak over the divine reality.

Ageless Wisdom tells us that the first three chakras, beginning with the root and up through the sacral and solar plexus, represents a consciousness of fear and doubt--a total focus on the external world--and no achievement can bring complete fulfillment because the vibration is very low. In the physical world one can never get enough of anything. The consciousness of the first three chakras is the root of all the attachments I wrote about in the July Quartus Report. We don't have to shut off these energies. We simply have to move them to a higher frequency, and we do this by opening our hearts to the original true nature of our being, the energy of unconditional love.

Can we not love ourselves unconditionally, regardless of what we have thought, said and done in the past? This we must do, for Love is the healing factor. And can we not love everyone unconditionally as self-expressions of God? We don't just "salute the Christ" in them; we see and feel their innate Perfection. When we can love unconditionally, seeing God in every one and every thing, our lives come into Divine Balance and Order.

THE SPIRITUAL DYNAMICS OF THE CREATIVE PROCESS OF ALL-SUFFICIENCY

Our individual consciousness is the Self-expression of the one Presence and power within--as above, so below. Father-Mother God expressed as the masculine-feminine aspects of our consciousness, objective and subjective. Same energy, just different vibration. We must not forget that we, as individuals, are an integral part of the creative process.

Our Divine Consciousness knows Itself as the Abundance of the Universe. It is the Consciousness of Infinite Abundance, the eternal All-Sufficiency, not only in the universal realm, but in each individual's life. As we contemplate this Divine Knowingness of Abundance held in Mind, our awareness draws it into our conscious mind as an insight. Such as...

Through my consciousness of my God-Self, the Christ within, as my Source, I draw into my mind and feeling nature the very substance of Spirit. This substance is my supply, thus my consciousness of the Presence of God within me is my supply.

As we accept and contemplate such ideas of Truth, the impression is then received by the feminine-subjective mind where it becomes a pattern for manifestation.

Now we look at the activity of the Divine Mother Substance, the Cause of all things. This Substance is universal, omnipresent. We live and move and have our being in this Creative Energy. Its swirling rhythmic motion moves in and through us and finds an outlet into the external world through our subjective nature, the heart center. If this feminine aspect of mind is clear of attachments to lack and scarcity and is holding firmly to the pattern of abundance, then a financial all-sufficiency is certain to be manifest.

THE SECRET OF MANIFESTATION

It relates specifically to the loving relationship between the masculine I (objective) and the feminine ME (subjective). For greater understanding of this, let's review the Hermetic Principle of Gender: "Gender is in everything; everything has its Masculine and Feminine Principles; Gender manifests in all planes."--The Kybalion.

It has been taught for ages that if there is not a bonding of love and caring between these two aspects of mind, all creativity is stifled. In The Mystic Keys of Hermes by John Rankin, he says "When you are at a stage in your life where you feel nothing is happening, it is because the inner principles that correspond to the masculine-feminine are mis-matched or unmatched. In the physical universe there can only be a flow of electrical power through the interaction of positive and negative charges. The same thing in consciousness. Both aspects have a part to play. ... When the masculine and feminine are separate in the mental state of consciousness--no union--there is no production, no creation, and no success."

To enjoy the All-Sufficiency that is already ours, let's make that union. With your masculine objective mind, take your feminine subconscious as your creative partner in life, to love her and protect her with loving, productive thoughts of Truth. Do that now.

There is no scarcity, anywhere.

There is no lack, anywhere.

There is no futility, anywhere.

There is always plenty, everywhere.

Abundance is everywhere, now.

Success is everywhere, now.

Love is everywhere, now.

I am the open channel through which Substance is flowing as my All-Sufficiency.

If done with joyful love, your feminine-feeling nature will respond with love, eager to create only that which is good, true and beautiful in life.

Now see the light of love connecting mind and heart and revel in the experience of love. Take several minutes to complete the bonding, and continue to maintain it as a sacred love affair.

Keep in mind that the Spirit of Truth, your Divine Consciousness, is eternally shining Its Knowingness of Infinite Abundance into your individual consciousness. Accept this Light of All-Sufficiency, let it be impressed on your feeling-feminine nature with your thoughts and words, which in turn sends forth this Truth vibration to the Creative Mind of the Divine Mother, who creates the form and experience out of her substance. This is the cosmic process of creation in the external world.

Do your part in the process and positive results will be forthcoming.

Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper. (3 John 2)

The God of heaven, he will prosper us. (Nehemiah 2:20)

Something Wonderful

by Stacy Isabelle

Something wonderful is happening in our world that is beyond the visible. You will not hear it reported in the news, or discussed on Wall Street, yet I believe it is happening none the less. I can feel it down to my bones. A new consciousness is positioned for birth.

Is it any surprise that at the exact time powerful spiritual, light-filled ideas reach the masses with acceptance, the negativity (darkness) in our physical world is enlarged? Could it simply be that the ego is so frightened of being "kicked to curb" that it will do whatever is needed to distract us from the Light?

The old is beginning to break away, as evidenced by the strong presence of fear in our world, and we have at our doorstep a fabulous new opportunity to stand and affirm what is True for us in the midst of what Paul Tillich called the "shaking of the foundation." The old belief structure dominated by fear can now be dissolved and replaced with the Light of Love, if we so choose.

This is our moment. Do we place our trust in the fearful worldly images, or in the power, the magnificence and the majesty of the Infinite One? Do we have the spiritual stamina to stand amidst all the images being displayed within this world and declare a higher order for ourselves and for everyone? It is time to rise up and claim what is rightfully ours. Let us place our gaze, as Jesus did, beyond the visible, to the unseen possibilities. Each of us can contribute to the Light in easy, beautiful ways throughout the day.

Here are a few simple suggestions that keep the joy pouring into my life:

* Honor the dignity of all people. Look for the holy in the people in your life. Identify what is good in them and find ways to reflect this back to them. Be mindful of their good each time you think of them or see them. Recognizing the Light in others is a powerful way to increase the good in our lives.

* Send silent blessings to the people you meet or see standing at the bus stop, the waitress serving your food, or your boss! Keeping our minds focused on giving light-filled thoughts away to others keeps it off of fear-based thoughts. It reinforces abundance, not lack.

* Be generous. People are feeling afraid. This is the time for extreme kindness and patience. Say, "Thank you" to co-workers, your boss, the daycare worker or family members. Leave a generous tip for the waiter, find something kind to acknowledge in the person standing next to you at the deli. Listen with your full being to the cashier as she tells you her story.

Now is the time to practice present moment awareness and to give of ourselves in whatever method feels right. It is a wonderful reminder that there is always enough of everything. Love truly is all around us, and as we begin looking for Her, we will see Her absolutely everywhere!

DAY OF DECISION

by John Price

This is the day, the moment, that I turn away from sadness and sorrow, from lack and limitation, from conflict and chaos. I know this is a benevolent universe and that I was created to live in gladness, abundance, and harmony.

So I make my choice now to live lovingly, joyfully, and peacefully--to smile and laugh and sing as I embrace the fullness of life--doing everything for the incredible joy and fun of it.

I toss worry behind me, wave anxiety out of the way, and tell fear it no longer has a place to live in my consciousness. I am willing to be happy for the rest of my life, and I now follow the path of ecstasy and bliss.

REVELATION

by Joe Alfieri

Let me remove these soiled garments surrounding mind and body
that have been shading
your Light

but once laundered
then reveal to me, my dear Friend,
your blessed fire
of wholeness, peace and love.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED FOR THE OCTOBER 29-NOVEMBER 2 MYSTERY SCHOOL OF THE GOLDEN DAWN?

We found a reference to the "Order of the Golden Dawn" in the book Holy Blood, Holy Grail by Michael Baigent, Richard Leigh and Henry Lincoln. The Order was referred to as "the most famous British occult society of the period."

We do not use the word "occult" in our teachings, but it simply means mystical, secret, veiled. And in this Mystery School we will go through the process of unveiling to awaken from the dream. And if you'll notice, the Friday evening of the School is Halloween, celebrated in olden times as Holy Person. It will be fun time spliced into the sacred.

Let us hear from you soon so that we'll have an estimated count.

THE ABUNDANCE BOOK IS NOW PUBLISHED IN GREEK

Hay House sent us a few copies. It was strange to see John's name written in Greek, which is considered one of the oldest surviving languages in the world today. And we're still benefiting from their Mystery School principles.

GRATITUDE FILLS OUR HEARTS

Our fiscal year ended on June 30th, and bundles of Thank You's go to the members who continue to support Quartus. Nearly 66 percent of our total income was from contributions, 28 percent from workshops, the remainder from membership dues and product sales. You have blessed us in so many ways. Just know how loved you are.

SHARINGS

"I don't think there's a day that goes by without experiencing gratitude for your books and their influence on my life. ... I claim the beauty of all the gifts that God has given me within. With this realization has come a peace and joy that feels new to me, or very old, like remembering. I think the greatest happiness that has come of all these years of study is the ever-increasing trust I feel for God (My Higher Self). I'm also feeling the meaning of surrender instead of thinking my ego can force anything. This is such a wonderful process, with so many rewards along the way. Shining the light of consciousness onto what I've considered to be problems has been an incredible healing."

"The last issue of the Report inspired me to look up my copy of Living a Life of Joy. Wow! What a treasure."

V.--Florida

"Since I moved...I have been leaning on The Angels Within Us for strength and comfort, particularly the Angel of Courage and Perseverance, and it has pulled me over the sense of not belonging."

C.--Tennessee

"Let me address this new vibration as I have been meditating on it. When one has found Light, the appearance of the 'ego' as a bad presence is only bad when one is told it is and believes it. ... Now the ego is awakening to a new era and returning to its original state of Truth. If one sees the self as whole and Holy, it must be self-evident that the whole is now and always has been what it really is, the kingdom of heaven. In my father's house are many mansions, i.e. places where one resides, levels of mind on different dimensions all within the Mind, which is divine and whole. Love and Light releases the ego from the race mind confusion and inherent condemnation of its nature into the revelation that it is not separate from the Light. This is what forgiveness really is, creation from a divine consciousness rather than the flight or fight survival consciousness."

"I just wanted to thank you for the July Quartus. I speak both your names often, and love and thank you so much for your empowering words."

M.--e-mail

"This date I have set to clean out, clear up and generally get my physical being in order to practice for a new and better 2009. I've stopped spinning my wheels and scattering energy. I am inspired to continue to build on the Spiritual Foundation by going back through your books and Jan's The Other Side of Death."

B.--Ohio

"Please accept the enclosed contribution. It's in sincere appreciation for all you do, especially the Quartus Report. I really enjoyed 'Acting As If' (May Report), the article on 'Gathering of Power' (June), and the small but powerful bit 'Boldly'. Thank you!"

L.--Arizona

"The July Report on attachments nailed me! I see clearly as never before. The article brought into focus how I have sabotaged myself, and more importantly, what to do about it."

P.--e-mail

"I've never written to an author before and I was very pleased to hear from you. Yes, a worry-wart I am, or used to be. Your suggestion that I read Chapter Seven--The Worrier--in your book Removing the Masks That Bind Us was perfect. And the section on removing this mask worked like magic."

G.--California

"To all of you at Quartus. I received a thank-you card from Jan Price in the mail yesterday for a donation I had given, and I was very touched by it. I wasn't expecting anything, but when I opened the card and read the message inside, I realized what an important role gratitude plays, and when I thank others what an impact it has on others. Thank you for living what you teach."
