A Quartus School of Wisdom on REMOVING THE IDOL OF LACK

Let us come together and become free from conditions of limitation in relationships, physical wholeness, abundance, and true place success.

In removing the idol of lack we should understand that an idol is an apparition of a god, an image of worship and excessive devotion. Lack is the condition of not having enough, thus it becomes a god..

Question: Do you choose a loving relationship and more close friends for greater enjoyment? There is a mental equivalent for this, as there is for greater physical health, visible wealth, and fulfillment in true place success. The latter doesn't just mean climbing the corporate ladder. It is being wonderfully contented in life with meaningful activities.

Becoming free of limitations is part of the natural process of life. It is being in alignment with the decoded secrets, the mysteries of the universe revealed. So many have been trying to get for so long, when all the time the blueprint for have has been etched on the Wisdom Tablets since the beginning of recorded history. There simply hasn't been sufficient interest for a breakthrough in mind.

How we value ourselves literally becomes a coded instruction to the creative energy to place an equal value on everything else in our life. Accordingly, we will probe consciousness, find the electrical circuits of denial, and explore our feeling nature to discover our projections.
