

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

Your Role as the Christ

1. We must remember—through the awakening process—how to be the Masters we were created to be. We must understand the principle of supply so that we are not affected by anything that happens to the economic system. We must demonstrate radiant health so that we will have the energy and vitality to fulfill our purpose here. We must live under Divine Protection so that we may be in a safety zone at all times. We must reopen the Wisdom faculty within us so that we may be guided to take the right action at the right time and in the right way. And we must be a beacon of illumination for others seeking the spiritual path.

2. Too difficult a task for you? No, it really isn't. You can truly step out in mastery this very day if you choose to do so! I am not talking about strutting around like a peacock and calling yourself a Lord. I am referring to your acceptance of your true Identity this day, and letting that Identity live through you every single moment of your eternal life.

3. You see, Christhood is not something to come at a point in the future when you are more evolved. Christhood is—right now! I am the Christ of God. You are the Christ of God. We were Christed in the beginning, and nothing and no one can ever take that away from us. And while it is true that a part of us is asleep and under the spell of illusion, there is so much more of us that is fully awake, fully illumined and living the Reality of Truth – right now!

4. You are not having problems and you are not facing challenges. You never have and you never will. You are whole and complete. Abundance is yours, wellness is yours, loving and harmonious relationships are yours, total fulfillment is yours, and you are enjoying the exquisite perfection of God's Universe at this very moment. In Truth, you never left the Father's house, you never fell from grace, and you certainly were not tossed out of some garden and told to till the ground until you dropped dead.

5. Before you say that I have you mixed up with someone else, let me remind you that you are the offspring of the Infinite Mind and Power of the Universe, and all that this Infinite Mind and Power is, you are! For God's sake, know this! You finally got through the worm-of-the-dust fixation, but you are still hanging in there with the obscene notion that you are a pawn of fate fighting for your good in a hostile world.

6. The reason you are still playing the illusion game is that you are living out of the lower soul (ego) consciousness, but you don't have to. At any time in the last two thousand years you could have risen into the vibration of the Higher Soul and regained your realization of oneness with Spirit. In fact, you have touched this Christ Vibration in moments of meditation, but you did not lock into it. You took the elevator up, but instead of stepping out in mastery, you pushed the "down" button.

7. Regaining spiritual consciousness is not tearing one house down and building another. It is more like moving out of the basement and into the main floor. Remember that you are an individualized Energy Field. Within this force field are lower and higher vibrations. Your "I" of identity is like the mercury in a thermometer, rising and falling according to the weather of your thoughts and emotions. For the majority of people, the "I" remains in the cold, dark atmosphere of the lower mind, while all the time in the upper region of the energy field, the Sun is shining and there is the warmth of Light, Love and Joy. Here, the Energy is pure, the vibrations high, and the Consciousness illumined.

8. But understand that this illumined Consciousness that is alive and living simultaneously with your mortal mind is your Consciousness. You cannot break a beam of light into parts. It's all one stream of radiance. When you lift up the "I" and move into this spiritual dimension of your own energy field, you do not lose your identity or your self-awareness. You do not lose consciousness and wake up as a stranger in a strange land. You do not trade one mind in for another. No, you take your consciousness with you and rise up into a new range of awareness, understanding and knowledge.

9. As your thinking and feeling natures move up to a different coordinate in your energy field, you take on the Consciousness of the Higher Soul and the dark energies of the lower self are transmuted. And while there were two states of consciousness before (duality), now there is only one. It is this Higher Soul Energy that says, "No one cometh unto the Father but by me." When you are in this spiritual vibration, you are literally "in tune with the Infinite" because the Infinite Spirit of God dwells in that vibration! In this Higher Consciousness you are fully aware—you understand—and you have Knowledge of the Living Christ of your Being.

10. As you rise into this finer vibration, you become aware of your God-Self as never before. You sense that intense Knowingness. You see the brilliance of the indwelling Light. You feel the fire of that boundless love within you. And as your mortal mind is totally swallowed up in this dimension of pure spiritual energy, you come into the fullness of the Christ Consciousness that says, "I am the Light of the world. I am the resurrection and the life." Now you know the Reality of your Self. Now you know that you are the Omnipotent Christ!

11. Will you begin the ascension today? Will you accept the Truth of your Divine Identity and begin to act the role of the Christ? Will you play the part? If you will, even though you may at this very moment be wallowing with the swine, I assure you that the robe and ring will be yours sooner than you can possibly imagine. How do you play the role? With everything you've got!

12. You take the thought into your mind that you are the Christ of God and you live with that thought throughout the day. And from that parent thought will come mental children of great love, joy, faith, understanding, power, strength, wisdom, forgiveness, imagination, will, life, and enthusiasm. And if you momentarily "forget your lines"—ask yourself—how does the Christ think? And let the thoughts flow.

13. How does the Christ feel? With total and complete unconditional love . . . so begin this day to love everyone and everything as you have never loved before. Feel that love vibration. Let it flow, pour out, radiate from you. Be the Love of God in action! And if your emotions pause for a moment to be anxious and fearful, just remind yourself that those are not Christ-like feelings, and as the Christ of God, you will feel only joyous, peaceful, loving and happy emotions.

14. How does the Christ speak? With words that represent the attributes of God. So your words will be kind, loving, compassionate, fearless, wise, joyous. Not one word will come forth from your mouth that denies the Divinity of yourself or your fellow beings. Criticism is not a part of your nature; there is never a verbal attack. Right thinking precedes your words and your conversations are always uplifting and inspiring. Your voice is as music to ears eager for the message of Truth.

15. How does the Christ act? With actions that reflect illumination, love, power and perfect faith. Whenever there is an appearance of lack or limitation, you will give thanks for the infinite givingness of Spirit, and you will decree the Truth by recognizing the Reality behind the illusion. You will command the very Energy of your Being, the substance of your Self, to appear as the needed form or experience. Whenever you see conflict and hostility, you will radiate the Light of Love as a laser beam to harmonize the situation. Whenever there is the appearance of dis-ease, you will send forth the Light of Truth with intense radiation to dissolve the error pattern and release the Healing Force from within the individual.

16. Remember, you are the Christ of God. Therefore, you will walk as the Christ, sit as the Christ, stand as the Christ. Your body language will reflect the Christ. Your facial expressions will reflect the Christ. And you will see everyone else as you see yourself . . . as the Christ of God . . . God in individual expression. Can you play the role? If you can, something very mystical and beautiful will happen to you. The "I" of identity will begin to rise, moving from the dark, cold atmosphere of mortal mind consciousness right up into the Kingdom of the Fourth Dimension. Even now you hear the call: "I am the bread of life. He that comes to me shall never hunger, and he that believes on me shall never thirst. You are from beneath; I am from above. Come unto me now."

17. I now return to the glory that I knew in the beginning. It is done!
