A NEW YEAR OF TRUST

by John Price

A Quartus member wrote me recently with this request: Would you consider running again the article in the February 2005 Quartus Report titled "End Times Stuff" – maybe with some update to the present? I can feel the new 4th Dimensional energy, and every day brings evidence of what's ahead and it is so exciting.

I agree. We are living in exciting times, and to stay on track with the Good News we have to zero in on a very important word in terms of consciousness: TRUST.

Major changes will be taking place throughout the world in 2012. That's part of the natural order, yet sometimes change can be rather disturbing to some people. Think of Arab Spring and the financial/political mess in many parts of the world.

Perhaps the point here is that in remodeling a house, major reconstruction may be necessary. I'll discuss more about trust later in this Report, but for now let's go back to February 2005 with excerpts from the End Times article:

We've received communications recently either promoting or wondering about "Armageddon." (Mention was made of earthquakes around the world and the tsunami that killed more than 150,000 people.)

If you recall from the Bible, Armageddon is how the final battle between the forces of good and evil is described. God wins, then Jesus will come to save his people from the Great Tribulation, and after he judges everyone else he will usher in peace on earth.

In Revelations 16:14 we read about the preparation for the battle, and in Rev. 16:16 "they assembled them at the place which is call in Hebrew Armageddon." Then in Rev. 16:18 we're told of "a great earthquake such as had never been since men were on the earth, so great was that earthquake." In Rev. 17:21: "and great hailstones, heavy as a hundred weight, dropped on men from heaven, till men cursed God for the plaque of the hail..."

Let's see if we can make some sense of this. First of all, The Book of Revelations as a prophecy was written around the year A.D. 95. However, the "final battle" and "end of times" teaching can be traced back to the Persian Prophet Zoroaster over 500 years earlier. And interpreting ancient texts we learn that Zoroaster's Armageddon was influenced by what we now call the Brotherhood of Shadows, or as some exoteric historians put it, "the corrupted Brotherhood." We can certainly see signs of the activity of these malcontents today.

What was the purpose of this gloom and doom prophecy? To motivate people to work toward a final battle under the guidance of the "Priestcraft:...to show that God's Plan for humanity is continuous suffering...leading to that War of Armageddon where the good people would be cleansed sufficiently.

A word about Nature. All is consciousness, and that includes all the kingdoms of nature. Negative emotions such as hate, fear, vindictiveness, bigotry and intolerance affect the whole of nature, which then turns on those energies in periodic reactions to balance the generating forces. "Nothing personal," says Mother Nature. These cycles have been happening for thousands of years and have no relation at all to "end times."

Now let's move ahead to the June 2011 Quartus Report and the article titled "Predictions and Prophecies." I mention all the talk about what's going to happen in the future according to authors, preachers and beauty shop operators, then add...So what do we do? We begin by getting ourselves in order, remembering that we are the authors of our destiny through self-fulfilling prophecies. As Jesus said, "What you see you shall become." Capture the Vision of wholeness in every area of life - not being timid about being truly audacious - and live the Vision unceasingly.

I also quote the Tibetan Master, Djwhal Khul: Be of good cheer...there is no power on Earth which can prevent the advance of man toward his destined goal, and no combination of powers can hold him back,...The full tide of Light is inevitably moving upon its way toward us.

***

What about the Mayan Prophecy for December 21, 2012? Experts at Mexico's National Institute of Anthropology and History say that the inscription on the Mayan table is not about a world-changing event. Rather, "the Mayans saw time as a series of cycles that began and ended with regularity, but with nothing apocalyptic at the end of a given cycle." ... "Western messianic thought has twisted the Cosmo vision of ancient civilizations like the Maya.” (From an Associated Press article, San Antonio Express-News, November 26, 2011.)

Let’s don’t let fear bring something to us that isn’t real.

From With Wings As Eagles.

Let’s stop spending time worrying about the outer picture, conjuring up images covering all possible disastrous scenarios, and planning for a calamity. Let’s concentrate more on growing into the Light, regaining our Oneness with the Presence of God within, listening to the inner guidance for any specific action we are to take, living according to the highest Truth we know, and continually projecting powerful thought-forms of the world safe and united in peace and unconditional love.

Now let’s look at the word TRUST.

A few years ago I had a conversation with Walter Starcke on the subject of faith, and he said “I like trust better. To me it’s more solid than faith, more direct and to the point.” Later I agreed with him and in December, as the new year loomed ahead, I began to think of the importance of trusting the activity of our Divine Consciousness, regardless of what the media and fearful people tell us.

I ask this question: Why can’t we totally trust God in every situation in our lives? Is it because we simply don’t trust God’s love, wisdom, and power? Not trusting our Father-Mother-Creator-Spirit is really ridiculous, isn’t it?

In one of my books I wrote about the first audible words I heard from the Spirit within. It was when I was going through a tough time in the business world. I kept asking my self what to do, what to do, and I heard a voice that shook the room saying QUIET TRUST! It brought me to my knees, and Jan and I began a new life.

Some people hope for the best. That’s affirming a problem. Others strive to build their faith. That’s usually for a manifestation of good in the future. Trust is in the now moment, the only time-frame that means anything.

If we’re focusing on the ugliness of this world, the conflict, the lack and limitation, the unsafe conditions, the so-called approaching darkness, we’ve thrown trust out the window and relying on our own misguided consciousness. If we believe in our own troubling thoughts and feelings, that’s what we’re going to get. A worried mind creates worried conditions. Garbage in, garbage out, Truth and beauty in, Truth and beauty out.

Anxiety obstructs the channels, trust maintains open passage of God’s Grace. And remember the first word the Voice spoke in my experience: Quiet. Can we understand what that means? It means to release the tension, the stress, to let it all go and trust God, the Presence within. It means to stand still and see the victory of the Lord on your behalf.

Together, let’s look at the present moment, and through each day of 2012 as the opportunity to experience peace, love, beauty, joy, and the delight of fun-filled times. And if we want more of anything, let’s simply attach ourselves to the great I AM within, and let plenty be manifest. I am Wholeness, I AM Abundance, I AM Love, I AM Happiness I AM Wisdom. You get the idea.

Let’s remember that each and every day in the future is moldable. It is a projection of consciousness, individually and collectively, never fixed and always subject to change.

Happy New Year.

Why People Are Flocking Back Into Reincarnation

By John Price

I was talking to a friend recently and he asked a question that went something like this: “Why do we reincarnate to work off karma and heal our consciousness? Why don’t we just do it in the heavenly realm?”

First let’s do the math. Ageless Wisdom tells us there are 60 billion souls in all the worlds—and we all were created at the same time, as “Sparks from the Universal Flame in near-infinite individual units of Self-awareness.” Quote from The Jesus Code.

There are now 7 billion people on this planet, which means there are 53 billion in the other dimensions. What about births and deaths? National Geographic tells us that 300 babies are born every minute on earth, and 2 people die in the same time-frame. Talk about a population explosion. It appears that people are standing in line for a rebirth, which was not a part of the Cosmic Plan.

(A sidenote: I believe now that Jan’s talk to the very large group of people as shared in the October Quartus Report was truly a State of Heaven Address, perhaps to change minds regarding the idea of rebirth.)

What’s the incentive to return to the physical plane? Perhaps it’s ingrained in us on some level of consciousness that the cleansing/awakening process is faster in the earth energy. Remember that when we pass over we take our consciousness with us, which includes “near-infinite” states of mind. There is the full range of light and darkness with a variety of shades inbetween.

As I paused for a moment I heard the word guilt – Jan’s voice in my mind. Interesting! Now I know why I’m writing this article- to remind us that guilt is probably the most menacing aspect of consciousness, and we must do our work to rid ourselves of it while living on this plane. Why take it with us?

To continue, if the collective consciousness believes that guilt demands punishment, and the only place to rid ourselves from this shame is where it originated, the pull to return to earth will be very powerful.

In my imagination I can see/hear Jan talking to that crowd with this message: The moment of your error in thought, word and deed, you were forgiven by your Holiness. Now ask Spirit to help you forgive yourself, and do so, then release your fears, know how loved you are, and be at peace. Here in this Land of Love and Truth, you will grow in spiritual consciousness, and if you are led to later return to the earth plane, you will do so as a service to help turn that world around.

Can we do on earth as it is done in heaven? Guilt creates fear, and fear is the root cause of all problems in all areas of life. Let’s prayerfully release the guilt to Spirit, move out from under the umbrella of fear, feel the love of God, step into the joy stream and begin to live the kind of life that we were created to live.

Can we imagine a new year without guilt and fear? Seeing is believing. Let’s trust the Divine Process.

In seeing only the Holy Self I AM in all others, I give up my imperfection for wholeness, dissension for harmony, dissatisfaction for fulfillment-for myself and for all others. I now bring every activity of my life into alignment with the vision and will of the glorious Self I AM, and I live with the master intention of serving lovingly, joyously, peacefully, and victoriously.

FEELINGS OF LOVE

By Joe Alfieri

Let us highlight some sacred moments of love in full display:

when we are filled with inner joy in appreciation of the arts—

when we are moved by the blissful sounds of music—

when we are flooded by a panorama of nature's wonders—

when we share our warm affection and kindness with family, friends and teachers—

and when our heartfelt passions of devotion and gratitude are bestowed upon our beloveds—

the unseen magical ESSENCE of these precious experiences mold us into feelings of radiant Oneness and lift us into new realms of peace and serenity.

These "Love feelings" provide a full measure of cherished moments, and nudge us to silently embrace the marvelous vision of Camelot.

The Wonders of a Grateful Journal

By Laura Weaver

I am writing this on 11/11/11, and although I know this is a significant and spiritual day, I really don't feel any different than before. I have noticed lately that a lot of people are posting the things they are grateful for. I don't know if this is because it's November and Thanksgiving or what, but I have been doing a grateful journal for some time now, and was fascinated by their comments.

Today I am grateful for being able to go outside and see a beautiful Hill Country Sky with a full moon and stars...for being with a wonderful husband for thirty years, and having two beautiful children and now three awesome grandchildren. This is every day, but some days I'm grateful for just being able to be who I AM.

I encourage everyone to write in their grateful journal every day. Since I have been doing this, my life has changed. Not all days are perfect, but through gratitude I have found joy, even in those days.

I encounter so many people focused on what is going wrong in their lives, yet I continue to feel grateful for what I experience. Believe me, not all is what you may expect, but if you look further into it, you will discover joy, beauty, or a feeling that brings you gratefulness.

If you really think about it, our lives are filled with feelings about how things are, should be, or should not be. If we could let go of these feelings and just be grateful for what IS, we could change the world. Maybe I'm being overly positive, but what's wrong with that?

We get so caught up with the news, gossip and prophecy that we forget to enjoy life as life. Let's be grateful for waking up, for having a roof over our head, for water, tress, air, flowers, snow, wind, heat, and dirt! All is Good, or as our good friend Walter Starcke put it, All is God!

If we do our meditation daily, and be grateful for every day we have on this earth and beyond, then we could accept the overflowing abundance of love ever coming our way. I know there are people experiencing grief, suffering and other traumatic circumstances, but I truly feel that by encouraging them to experience gratitude, this could change.

Yes, we can change the world by what we believe. Feel gratitude now and daily, hourly, by the minute. Let's know how truly blessed we are!

The Light of Miracles

By Rene Fugitt

Recently during what I affectionately call night school, I had the most amazing experience that led me to a profound awareness that I would like to share with you, for you were all participants as members of this happy family called Quartus.

You are very important and very significant in a major shift in consciousness. I know this. I saw John and Jan sitting in what appeared to be their living room. They were busy talking about and planning the creation of World Healing Day, The glow surrounding them was a beautiful radiant platinum ray. As an observer I watched the energies of the room twirl and swirl with sparkling twinkling squiggling of light. The more John and Jan talked and created and shared, the more the light began to dance until through their heart center a viscus piscus was formed.

The two uniting as one with the focused intent, the world healing meditation flowed forth. I saw how the words of the meditation became alive with light, sound and color. The sacred words have their own vibrational signature. Next, I was shown as we began to recite the world healing meditation we became a circle, and our circle linked together with other circles that all connected together, creating this magnificent field of radiant love and magnificent light. I saw how groups that came together during World Healing Day created circles within circles. I could feel the energy alive and full of joyful movement, exquisite beauty beyond what I am capable of expressing.

I was then shown how this was happening to everyone and everything all over the world in all dimensions in all ways. I was shown how this magnificent occurrence has multiplied through the years. The power of light infused all life with such profound love that it caused a shift in consciousness!

I felt all of us celebrating John and Jan and each other for being the light of miracles.

SHARINGS

“I was especially struck by the phrase ‘spiritual physics’ (from Jan) which I had just used myself while leading a past life workshop with an emphasis on karma and grace. I think of spiritual physics as the impersonal laws of the universe which we ourselves can work in harmony with or fruitlessly attempt to defy. ...I love your conclusion: Can the future be determined-and changed-through spiritual physics? Yes! Spiritual physics, time, space and energy. Isn't it spiritual physics that inspired World Healing Day?

C.—email

“You have been given two very exciting words with ‘spiritual physics’. That's the kind of stuff levitation is made of. It is what Baird Spalding witnessed in the Temples in Tibet, and wrote about in Life and Teachings of the masters of the Far East.”

D.--Ohio

“I love the way you write and remind me of the personal responsibility to strive to live in a state of love, and that it is our thought and attitudes that determine our consciousness and ultimately create harmony in our life. And thanks for the thoughts on the messages coming from Jan.”

C.—Florida

“I wanted to thank you for your pioneering work with Superbeings. I am rereading the book and so appreciate your willingness to take on that project and make the book happen. I enjoy the story and your journey, and value the great wisdom within.”

L.—email

“I am compelled to write you at this very moment! Your book The Superbeings resonates with my soul like no truth ever has. When I read this book a feeling comes over me that this is the truth that I have carried with my soul for many lifetimes that has been brought back to me by no mistake. I have heard these truths put in many different ways, by the way you make it so simple to understand is a huge blessing and gift.”

M.—email

“As a direct result of my application of some of your work—namely your 40-day Prosperity Program and your Angels Within Us, I’m in tremendous gratitude for all the maNy blessings that I have received, continue to receive and anticipate receiving from now on! I began the Prosperity Program in September 2010 and have continued faithfully doing that since! It has fueled my transformation process with a much higher spiritual octane than I have ever known before. Many blessings to you. “

J.—email

“I’m so grateful. What a perfect gathering in October with you and Quartus family. I feel empowered and full of hope after our time together.”

T.—Texas

“The gathering was a delight and I’m still floating on the loving energy of the group. John, you continue to radiate such loving Presence. I am blessed to have you in my life.”

C.—Texas

“Thank you for all you do at Quartus. I know the world is better off because of Quartus.”

B. —Colorado

“We are so happy to have found the Quartus Group and your work. I feel like I have finally found my kind of people.”

P. —email

“I just wanted to write you a note to say thank you for what you have personally done for me. I started reading The Superbeings during a very difficult period of my life, and through it’s teachings I felt a sense of calm and peace. I feel true freedom.”
